APSAC Dependent Grant

The Administrative and Professional Staff Dependent Grant has been established to provide financial assistance to deserving dependents of Purdue North Central administrative and professional staff employees. The grant will be funded through designated donations from clerical, service, administrative staff and faculty through fund raising events coordinated and supported by the Administrative and Professional Staff Advisory Committee (APSAC).

APSAC will have the authority and responsibility for administering the grant, determining the award amount based on grant funds, and the number of grants to be awarded. APSAC will be responsible for monitoring the availability of applications, informing all applicants of application deadlines and requirements, and announcing recipients.

A committee of PNC personnel, consisting of one administrative/professional staff member, one faculty member, and one clerical/service staff member, will be formed by APSAC to evaluate the applications and to determine the recipients of the grants.

The funds will be disbursed in the Fall semester in accordance with the financial aid disbursement calendar. Any amount not needed for fee payment will be remitted to the student. The recipient may use the funds for any educationally related expense, including both direct and living expenses.

One $300.00 grant will be awarded in the 2011-2012 school year. Three hundred dollars will be disbursed provided the student continues to meet the requirements listed below. The grant will be discontinued if the employee terminates employment with PNC, except as outlined below.
