

Rather than a multiple choice question in this area, think about various nursing considerations specifically for male pts prior to insertion of a foley catheter and the maintenance care required for an indwelling catheter. Write out some questions and post them on VISTA for your fellow students to answer & discuss.