

Remember, when you answer the multiple choice questions, please type out the answer and any comment or rationale that is appropriate. Just writing the letter number is not helpful to others that may be trying to figure out why a certain answer is correct or another one is wrong.